

THE MARSHFIELD HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Pro-Am Historical Highlights Sunday Afternoon Lectures

JANUARY 8, 2012, 1:30PM

DOTTIE MACMULLEN
MARCIA THOMAS,
19TH CENTURY
AUTHOR,
HISTORIAN,
MARSHFIELD-LOVER

Curator, Dottie MacMullen will reenact Marcia Thomas, Marshfield's first historian and original owner of the structure now used as the MHS headquarters.

FEBRUARY 12, 2012 1:30PM

MICHAEL LEPAGE
OUR TOWN
FATHERS,
THE WINSLOWS

LePage, known for his wonderful re-enactments of characters in Marshfield's history, will take on the persona of one of the Town founders and Tories in the Winslow family.

APRIL 15, 2012, 1:30PM

MAURA PORTER
ARCHIVIST, JOHN F. KENNEDY LIBRARY

VOLUNTEERISM &
THE PRESIDENT:
How JFK
INFLUENCED LOCAL CITIZENS
TO SERVE THEIR COUNTRY IN THE PEACE CORPS

Maura Porter will provide background for Kennedy's Peace Corp and interview a panel of Marshfield residents that served as Peace Corps volunteers.

MAY 20, 2012, 1:30PM

PANEL OF MARSHFIELD FARMERS
MARSHFIELD'S
FARMS
YESTERDAY TO TODAY

Just before the busy "growing season" in Marshfield, we will hear from a farm-family panel sharing their struggles and successes since the 19th century.

DONATIONS

$5 FOR MARSHFIELD HISTORICAL SOCIETY MEMBERS $10 NON-MEMBERS.

RESERVE ANY FOUR LECTURES FOR THE PRICE OF THREE; $15 MEMBERS, $30 NON-MEMBERS.

Send Check To: Marshfield Historical Society PO Box 1244, Marshfield 02050

For more information: visit www.marshfieldhistoricalsociety.org or call 781-834-0100
The Marshfield Historical Society wishes to thank the Community Preservation Committee and the Citizens of Marshfield for their support.